By car from East Midlands Airport via M1

By car from Birmingham Airport

From the airport follow the signs for the M42 north. Take the M42 north and continue for approximately 23 miles (the M42 changes into the A42). Leave the A42 at Junction 13 and turn right onto the A512 towards Loughborough for approximately 10 miles. Continue straight on the A512 at the roundabout over the M1 motorway. At the first roundabout on the A512, turn right (signposted to Holywell Park) and then follow the directions as above.

By car from A6/A60

Come into Loughborough and follow signs for the M1 motorway, which will take you through the town and then away on the A512 (Ashby Road). Loughborough University campus will be on your left (the road becomes a dual carriageway). Follow the road through the traffic lights. At the first roundabout on the A512 past the University, turn left (signposted to Holywell Park) and then follow the directions as above.

Car Parking

Please use the sign-posted Visitors Car Park on the right just past the walkway over the lake.
